UI/UX analysis

Project Title: NOVASOL.dk Website Redesign Role: UX/UI

Designer Tools: Figma, User Testing,

Goal: Improve clarity, trust, and booking flow

Novasol Overview

Redesigned the homepage and booking flow of NOVASOL.dk to improve clarity, usability, and emotional engagement. The goal was to simplify navigation, highlight trust signals, and align the design with Scandinavian aesthetics.

Challenges Identified

- Overcrowded hero section with too much information
- Unclear and small CTA buttons
- No whitespace between sections, making the layout feel dense
- Footer overloaded with links and content
- Lack of dedicated space for customer reviews or brand differentiation

Design Goals

- Create a clean, full-screen hero section with a clear CTA
- Encourage users to scroll and explore the full page
- Improve visual hierarchy and readability
- Build trust through testimonials and value proposition
- Simplify footer for better usability

Solutions Implemented

- ☒ Full-screen hero with bold, inviting CTA
- ☒ Added whitespace between sections for better flow
- ☒ Used smooth background transitions to separate content zones
- ☒ Created a dedicated "Customer Reviews" section
- ☒ Added a "Why Choose Us" section to highlight brand strengths
- ☒ Streamlined footer with grouped links and reduced clutter

Reflection

This redesign demonstrates how thoughtful layout, clear messaging, and emotional storytelling can improve user experience and conversion. The new structure is more inviting, easier to navigate, and better aligned with NOVASOL's brand values.
